

The 19th Annual National Service-Learning Conference®

Youth for a Change

Minneapolis
April 9-12, 2008

Keynote Addresses by Archbishop Desmond Tutu of South Africa; urban educator Pedro Noguera, author of Unfinished Business: Closing the Achievement Gap in Our Nation's Schools; and Peace Corp Director Ronald A. Tschetter.

The National Service-Learning Conference is the largest gathering of youths and practitioners involved in the service-learning movement, drawing nearly 3,000 attendees from across the United States and 19 other countries. The conference connects participants with service-learning leaders through three days of plenary sessions, featured forums, and service projects. It also provides access to new ideas and networking opportunities, with more than 200 workshops and countless opportunities for informal meetings. This year's conference will address issues with local and global implications, including social justice, urban education, and the environment.

Highlights

- Nearly 3,000 participants from all 50 states and 19 other countries.*
- More than 1,000 youth attendees.*
- Showcases of regional service-learning projects.
- Principals Academy
- On-site bookstore.
- An Exhibit Hall with representatives from schools, businesses, and nonprofit organizations.
- Environmental Service Fair.

* Based on past attendance.

For more information, visit www.nylc.org/conference, call (800) 366-6952, or email nslc@nylc.org.

The 19th Annual National Service-Learning Conference is a program of NYLC, sponsored by the State Farm Companies Foundation in partnership with Youth Service America. NYLC is proud to partner with PeaceJam, YOUTHRIVE, and Metropolitan State University in hosting Archbishop Desmond Tutu.