

6th Annual National Urban Service-Learning Institute

August 5-7, 2009 • New Foundations Charter School, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Registration Information

Join us at this highly energizing event as we convene community voices to discuss service-learning’s promise in helping students achieve excellence in urban settings. This two-day event will address topics including: How can the principles of service-learning be applied in urban environments? What are the issues and opportunities that educators and students face in urban areas? How does service-learning fit in the current education reform movement?

Meals

Registration for the institute includes the following meals: breakfast and lunch on Thursday and Friday, as well as at the opening reception on Wednesday evening. If you require vegetarian meals, please be sure to check off the vegetarian meal option under the section ‘Special RSVP.’

Preconference Sessions

Preconference sessions require advance registration on the registration form. If you have already registered and would like to add a preconference session, please contact us at (800) 366-6952 or nslcreg@nylc.org.

Once you have registered, you can pick up a special preconference badge in the registration area at school. A regular institute badge will not admit you to a preconference session.

Hotel Information

There will be a discounted rate for the Institute attendees at the Downtown Philadelphia Marriott. Rooms are $149 per night, plus tax (15.2%). Please call the Marriott directly at 215-625-2900 to make your reservation. Mention the ‘Sixth Annual National Urban Service-Learning Institute’ to receive the special rate.

The Sixth Annual National Urban Service-Learning Institute is a program of NYLC in partnership with New Foundations Charter School and the Institute for Global Education and Service-Learning.
